

INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED
PSYCHOTHERAPY

To the Faculty, Colleagues, Friends, and alumni of The Institute for Advanced Training at Bellarmine University and Loyola University Chicago:

We would like to express to each of you our appreciation for your role and participation in the success of our advanced certificate program. Your expertise as faculty, your support as friends and colleagues, and your dedication as students, now graduates, are in no small measure the foundation of this program's success.

To build upon that success we wish to share with you some exciting news. We are in the process of creating the Jack Danielian IAP Scholarship Fund, the goal of which is to provide increased accessibility for advanced clinical training to qualified applicants. As some of you may know, Jack was instrumental in creating the vision and program design for the year-long certificate program. He co-authored two of the texts, Listening with Purpose and Uncovering the Resilient Core, that have been instrumental in shaping the foundations of our curriculum. Unfortunately, Jack died during the second year of the certificate program. This scholarship fund is our way of honoring Jack through his inspiration to his students and those of us who pledge to continue to provide training excellence to licensed professionals throughout the US and Canada.

If you are a graduate of this program, you have had a first-hand opportunity to see the value that your experience in The Institute's training has had for you both professionally and personally. If you are a faculty member, you have consistently been an integral part of the exponential growth that our students achieve. You have done this by embracing a leadership role in the training, creating a palpable sense of community, and modeling exemplary professionalism. And if you are a friend, family member, or colleague of Jack's, you carry the honor of his memory and the impact of his legacy because you got to know Jack firsthand.

So, we are hoping that each of you will help "pay it forward" by donating any amount to this scholarship fund. We are convinced that our combined efforts will add up to make a difference that will exponentially impact clinicians and the clients they serve for years to come.

Of course, your donations are tax-deductible and should be made payable to Loyola University Chicago. Online payment can be made at: <http://luc.edu/IAPFundraiser> . Checks can be sent to Loyola University Chicago, Gift Processing P.O. Box 4336, Carol Stream, IL 60122-4336, with "Jack Danielian IAP" in the memo line. The deadline for this year's donation is October 1, 2023.

Thank you for considering this request to make a tangible difference.

Best Wishes,

Jim Wayne, Patricia Gianotti, Terry Northcut
