A Partnership Between:

INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED
PSYCHOTHERAPY

The Institute for Advanced Psychotherapy at Loyola University is the proud sponsor of this webinar. In partnership with PsiAN, we bring our two missions together to provide integrative training programs to advance therapists' skill sets in depth therapies and promote advocacy and research in support of the efficacy of depth therapies.

The Institute for Advanced Psychotherapy is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The Institute for Advanced Psychotherapy maintains responsibility for this program and its content.*

Presenters:

Linda Michaels, Psy.D., MBA is a psychologist with a private practice in Chicago. She is Chair and Co-Founder of the Psychotherapy Action Network (PsiAN). She is also Consulting Editor of Psychoanalytic Inquiry, Clinical Associate Faculty at the Chicago Center for Psychoanalysis, and a fellow of the Lauder Institute Global MBA program.

Holly Passi, Psy.D. is a licensed clinical psychologist with a private practice in Chicago. She practices from integrative, psychodynamic, and trauma-informed perspectives. She was previously a Staff Psychologist and Program Coordinator for the Student Veteran Outreach Program at Jesse Brown VA Medical Center, which involved outreach, education, and direct care to post-9/11 military veterans. She is a steering committee member and team lead for the Psychotherapy Action Network.

Kathryn (Kate) Gallagher, Ph.D. is a staff psychologist, psychoanalyst, and faculty member at the Austen Riggs Center. She is also in private practice in Stockbridge, MA. In addition to her clinical practice, Dr. Gallagher is committed to addressing human rights and health equity issues. This often takes the form of supporting patient and clinician efforts to obtain insurance coverage for medically necessary behavioral health care.
